COSO Releases Fraud Risk Management Guide

NEW YORK, Sept 28, 2016 – The Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) announced today the release of the Fraud Risk Management Guide, a new research report that offers a blueprint for helping organizations to establish an overall fraud risk-management program. The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) is a co-sponsor of the project.

Since its inception, COSO has provided landmark thought leadership on internal control, enterprise risk management, and fraud deterrence. The COSO Enterprise Risk Management – Integrated Framework, the new guide, and COSO's Internal Control – Integrated Framework are intended to be complementary.

The Fraud Risk Management Guide is an update to a 2007 report sponsored by the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA), The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA), and ACFE, Managing the Business Risk of Fraud: A Practical Guide. Updates reflect recent developments in the area of risk management, including important information related to new technology, specifically data analytics.

“This research offers tremendous direction as it relates to reducing the extent of fraud in organizations of all sizes and across all industries,” said Robert B. Hirth Jr., COSO Chair. “Although it is virtually impossible to eliminate fraud completely, implementation of the principles in this new guide will maximize the likelihood that fraud will be prevented or detected in a timely manner and will create a strong fraud deterrence effect.”

The Fraud Risk Management Guide includes examples of key program components and resources that organizations can use to develop a fraud risk-management program effectively and efficiently. In addition, the guide contains references to other sources of guidance for tailoring a fraud risk-management program to a specific industry.

“We are happy to be working in conjunction with COSO to release this guide,” said James D. Ratley, CFE, President of the ACFE. “Fraud deterrence is a process of eliminating factors that may allow fraud to occur. With the help of the new Fraud Risk Management Guide, the potential for fraud can be minimized through a visible and rigorous anti-fraud program.”

The new guide provides practical guidance and tools to help organizations establish a sound fraud governance framework, conduct effective fraud risk assessments, design and maintain preventive and detective fraud control processes, and take swift action in response to allegations of fraud or wrongdoing.
